

Press release by Sadolin & Albæk A/S

Sadolin & Albæk has entered into a strategic alliance with Jones Lang LaSalle, one of the world's largest financial and professional services providers specialising in real estate services and investment management. With more than 30,000 people in 750 locations in 60 countries Jones Lang LaSalle provides extensive market coverage and the company enjoys a strong international standing.

This new alliance also provides Sadolin & Albæk with a solid platform in the Nordic countries as Jones Lang LaSalle has offices in Sweden and Finland, and works in alliance with Akershus Eiendom in Norway (since 2001).

Headquartered in Chicago, Illinois, Jones Lang LaSalle had an annual turnover of some USD 2.7bn in 2008 and is quoted on the New York Stock Exchange.

As part of the new alliance with Jones Lang LaSalle, Sadolin & Albæk has found it necessary to strengthen its organisation and capabilities in the field of Corporate Solutions, which covers strategic property advisory services in the corporate segment. Together with Director Lau Melchiorson, Sadolin & Albæk has therefore established the company of Sadolin & Albæk Corporate Solutions (SACS) with Lau Melchiorson as Director and Partner. Lau Melchiorson, M.S.Econ. and Chartered Surveyor (MRICS), has 20 years' experience in the industry as an adviser and mediator of commercial properties in Scandinavia and the Baltics, and in recent years his main focus has been on Corporate Solutions. Corporate Solutions is a multidisciplinary business area, with emphasis on optimising corporate space utilisation and property strategies.

Robert Gibson of EMEA Capital Markets Group and International Capital Group under Jones Lang LaSalle looks forward to working with Sadolin & Albæk and SACS. He says, "I believe that we share the same dedication to client service and the provision of high quality advisory services, and the cultural fit between our organizations will be strong".

Peter Winther, CEO of Sadolin & Albæk, says, "Since 1987, Sadolin & Albæk has been a member of ONCOR International and our company was therefore one of the first Danish commercial property agents to operate also in the international property markets. We have great hopes for our new strategic alliance with Jones Lang LaSalle as an internationally acclaimed "Industry Leader". We look forward to assisting Jones Lang LaSalle's substantial Danish client base, and thanks to Jones Lang LaSalle's international expertise and organisation we will be able to assist Danish investors and companies on a global level. Also, we are delighted to welcome Lau Melchiorson back with Sadolin & Albæk, where he held a position in the early 1990s. In recent years, Lau has been highly successful in resolving property-related assignments for large Danish and international companies, and Lau is the very right person to head up our Corporate Solutions, a business area in strong growth internationally."

On account of his previous work, Director Lau Melchiorson is very familiar with Jones Lang LaSalle as a business partner. "Sadolin & Albæk and Jones Lang LaSalle make a truly strong alliance that I will be happy to be a part of. Both companies enjoy an in-depth market knowledge and top professional research teams, so we will be well equipped for servicing our clients," says Lau Melchiorson.

Sadolin & Albæk A/S, incepted in 1967, is a leading Danish property agent, specialising in the mediation of investment properties and commercial leases, property valuations and analyses of the market for commercial and investment properties.

Sadolin & Albæk has offices in Copenhagen and Aarhus. The company has around 30 employees.
